

Amendment of Parentage

Introduction

Use the Amendment of Parentage (VS 21) form to add, remove, or replace a parent listed on a California Birth Certificate.

A second parent can be added without a court order IF all the following are true:

- You are adding the second parent to a blank field on the current birth certificate.
- Parent(s) are available to sign the VS 21.
- One of the following applies to the birth parent:
 - Filed a Voluntary Declaration of Parentage (VDOP) form with Department of Child Support Services (DCSS).
 - Married to or in a State Registered Domestic Partnership (SRDP) with the genetic or intended parent being added.
 - Intended parent: non-genetic parent of a child resulting from assisted reproduction.

A court order establishing parentage is required IF any of the following are true:

- You are removing or replacing a parent listed on the current birth certificate.
- Parent(s) are unavailable or unwilling to sign.
- You do not qualify to add a parent without a court order, as specified in the section above.
- A court has established a parent-child relationship.
 - If an adoption took place, please see Adoption Pamphlet.

PLEASE NOTE:

- A court order name change is required to change the registrant's (child) name.
- To change parent information after an adoption, please see Adoption Pamphlet.
- Please see page 9 for a list of frequently asked questions and answers.
- For other amendment types, please visit the CDPH-VR website at www.cdph.ca.gov

Amendment of Parentage Checklist

Properly Completed VS 21 Form

- Provide applicant name and mailing address.
- Part 1 matches the current birth certificate.
- Part 2 has the appropriate box selected. Multiple boxes may be selected if you are changing the child's name via Court Order Name Change.
 - The child's court ordered name change listed in Part 2 will reflect on the new birth certificate.
- Part 3 is filled out with the new parent information as it should appear on the new birth certificate. This information is used to create the new birth certificate and must match any changes ordered by the court or as listed in the parentage documentation.
- The signatures required in Part 4 are determined by which boxes are selected in Part 2. Have one or both parents sign and complete this section.
 - No signatures required for establishing parentage with a court order.

Parentage Documentation

Required:

- A certified copy of the Voluntary Declaration of Parentage (VDOP) DCSS 0909 form that was filed with the Department of Child Support Services if the parents are not married to each other.

Optional:

- A photocopy of the parents' Marriage Certificate (if applicable).
- A photocopy of parents' State Registered Domestic Partnership declaration (if applicable).
- A photocopy of the child's birth certificate.

Certified Copy of the Court Order Requirements (if applicable)

- Provides the child's name and date of birth as listed on the current birth certificate.
- Clearly identifies the parent-child relationship and what changes need to be made on the birth certificate.
 - A child's name change MUST be explicitly stated within the Adjudication order. Otherwise, a Court Ordered Name Change decree may be required.
- Contains original court certification stamp and court seal with court clerk's signature. The appearance of the court seal will vary depending on the court of issuance.
- Includes judge's signature or signature stamp.
- If documents are not written in English, must include a certified English translation.

Payment

Check or money order in US dollars, made payable to CDPH Vital Records. PLEASE DO NOT SEND CASH.

- The fee is $26 to amend a birth record, which includes one certified copy of the newly amended record.
- Additional certified copies of the amended certificate are $29 each.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What is an intended parent?

A: An “intended parent” is the non-genetic parent of a child resulting from assisted reproduction who wishes to be the legal parent of the child.

Q: Can I use the VS 21 to add a stepparent?

A: A stepparent may only be added via court order or through the adoption process (see Adoption Pamphlet).

Q: Where can I get a certified copy of a filed Voluntary Declaration of Parentage?

A: You may request a certified copy of a filed Voluntary Declaration of Parentage from the California Department of Child Support Services (DCSS). Please visit the following link for more information: <https://childsupport.ca.gov/parentage-forms-and-information/>.

Q: How do I obtain a court order?

A: CDPH-VR suggests you contact a family law attorney for legal advice regarding the court process. CDPH-VR staff cannot provide legal advice, nor does CDPH-VR have information about the legal process. You may find helpful court process information by visiting the California court website (<http://www.courts.ca.gov/>). CDPH-VR accepts certified court orders from any U.S. state or territory.

Q: Where can I find application forms and informational pamphlets?

A: Application forms, including informational pamphlets for all amendment types, are located on the CDPH-VR Forms: Birth Death Marriage Certificates webpage. (<https://www.cdph.ca.gov/Programs/PSB/Pages/BirthDeathMarriageCertificates.aspx>)

Q: What is the current processing time?

A: Current processing times are listed on the CDPH-VR Processing Times webpage. (<https://www.cdph.ca.gov/Programs/CHSI/Pages/Vital-Records-Processing-Times.aspx>)

Q: Once the amendment is registered, what happens to the birth certificate?

A: The current birth certificate will be sealed and replaced with a new, one-page certificate.

Q: Will my supporting documents be returned?

A: Any supporting documents, including the certified copy of the court order, VDOP form, or sworn statement, will not be returned once the amendment is registered. Please keep copies of all documents submitted.

Q: What if I still have questions?

A: Please contact our Customer Service Unit by email at CHSIVitalRecords@cdph.ca.gov or telephone at (916) 445-2684.
