Presents:

CRDP Phase 2 Community Forums

The California Reducing Disparities Project (CRDP) is an initiative to reduce mental health disparities among 5 historically underserved, underserved, and inappropriately served populations:

- African Americans
- Asian Pacific Islanders
- Latinos
- Native Americans
- Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer, and Questioning persons

Save the Date!

You are invited to participate in an upcoming community forum regarding Phase 2 of the California Reducing Disparities Project (CRDP).

The purpose of these forums is to share California Department of Public Health's (CDPH) plans and progress for CRDP Phase 2 and to hear any questions, comments, or concerns you might have about Phase 2.

Community forums will be held on the following dates:

Tuesday, December 2, 2014 | 12:30PM-4:30PM

Preservation Park Center | Nile Hall
1233 Preservation Park Way, Oakland, CA 94612

Thursday, December 4, 2014 | 1PM-5PM
