CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION CREDIT

INFORMATION: HOAC is accredited by the Institute for Medical Quality/California Medical Association (IMQ/CMA) to provide CME for physicians. HOAC takes responsibility for the content, quality, and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

HOAC designates this educational activity for a maximum of 10.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits(s)™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. This credit may also be applied to the CMA Certification in Continuing Medical Education. Non-physicians who participate in this session will receive a Certificate of Attendance. This program is designed to benefit health officers, deputy health officers, other public health physicians, and all other professionals interested in improving the practice of public health at the local level.

CONFERENCE OBJECTIVES:

After attending this conference, participants will be able to:

- Navigate the financial and structural components of local and state behavioral health systems to build partnerships
- Recognize disparities related to behavioral health and work to raise public awareness and implement community-based prevention efforts
- Access the most relevant sources of data to assess the effectiveness of local behavioral health programs and implement surveillance strategies to evaluate the behavioral health status of their communities
- Enhance their understanding of the opportunities for public health and behavioral health to partner in addressing behavioral health from a perspective of prevention and population health

REGISTRATION/CHARGES:

You may register separately for each day of the conference: the CCLHO Business Meeting on Wednesday, the Continuing Medical Education Program, "Public Health & Behavioral Health Intersections" on Thursday and Friday, or you may register for the full conference at a discounted rate. Breakfast on each day, lunches for Wednesday and Thursday and the Wednesday evening reception are included in the full registration fee. Continuing Medical Education Credits for physicians and nurses are separate. Please see below for applicable charges. Please return the completed registration form with your check payable to "CCLHO" by Wednesday, September 21, 2016 in order to avoid paying a late fee of $20. Please note all guests must pay registration fees. This meeting is a legal charge to the local health jurisdiction. There is no state reimbursement for travel.
