

Jessica L. Wilson, MPH (c)
Loma Linda University
Preceptor: Marshare Penny

Randall Lewis Fellowship

- The purpose of the Randall Lewis Health Policy Fellowship program is to ensure the development of health professionals who possess the necessary skills to influence positive change in public policy, systems, and the built environment in our local municipalities.
- In addition, these prestigious and competitive fellowships will create educational and professional opportunities for students in health policy and related disciplines, provide for the expansion of the regional health policy infrastructure, and retain essential intellectual capital in our local counties.

3

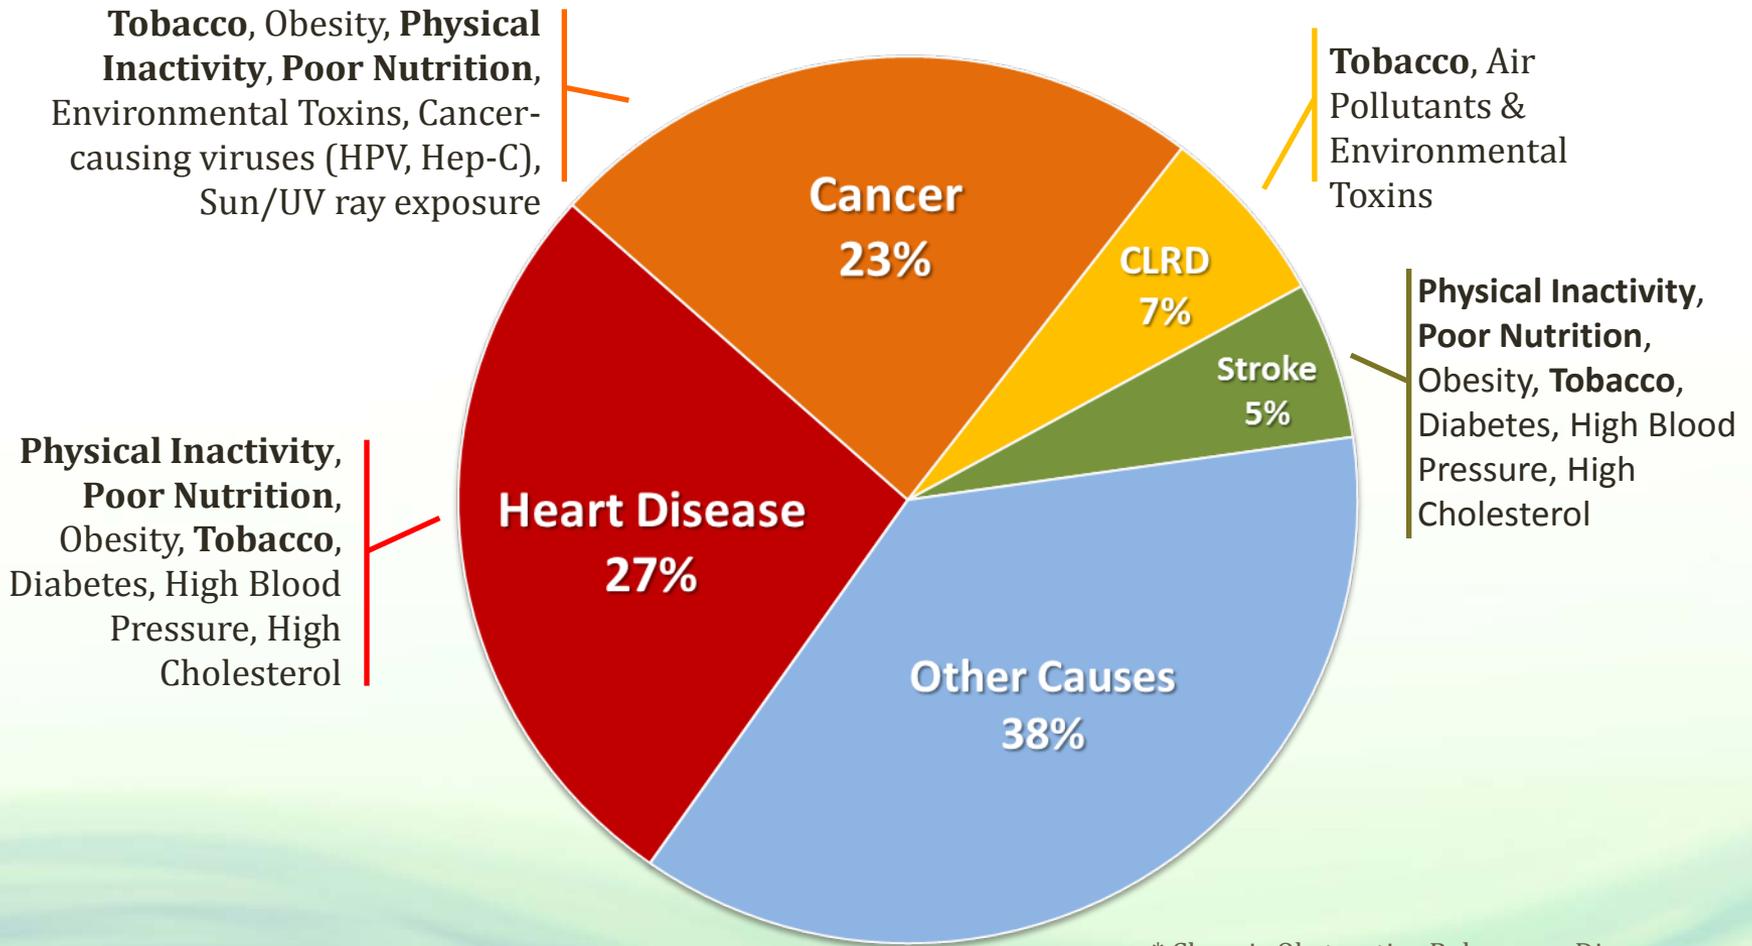

Behaviors

50%

Diseases

Deaths

4

* Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD) includes bronchitis, emphysema & other non-cancer related lung disease.

HEALTHY RIVERSIDE COUNTY INITIATIVE

Four target areas:

- Built environment
- Active living
- Tobacco exposure
- Healthy eating/nutrition

Healthy Riverside County Initiative Involvement

Built Environment and Active Living:

- Walk Audit for Riverside County

Healthy Eating Nutrition/Education:

- Assistance with SNAP-Ed sub-grant for the City of Perris

Tobacco Exposure:

- Development of narrative summaries for Communities of Excellence (CX3)

Healthy Riverside County Initiative Involvement

All Areas:

- Compilation of annual report for County of Riverside Department of Public Health
- Creation of program matrix for County of Riverside Department of Public Health
- Preparation of strategic planning minutes and reports

Live Well Perris Events

- Winter Workouts
- Community-Wide Health Fair
- Walk with the Mayor
- Bike with the Mayor Pro-Tem

2013 Live Well Perris Events

- Community Zumba Classes
- Tour de Perris
- Biggest Loser Campaign
- Farmers Market
- Basketball Camp for Kids
- Presidential Active Living Award (PALA)
- Walk to School Day

Network for a Healthy California SNAP-Ed Grant

- Three year nearly $1 Million Grant from Network for a Healthy California
- To enhance nutrition education programs in the City of Perris
- Including classroom nutrition education and food access research

Live Well Perris Involvement

- Research of best practices for community health initiatives
- Creation of marketing and promotional documents
- Development of surveys for statistical analysis
- Initiation of partnerships towards event sponsorships and funding
- Participation in multiple event committees for strategic planning for Live Well Perris 2014
- Distribution and assistance with Impact/Outcome Evaluation for SNAP-Ed program