Under general direction, provides technical leadership and assists in the planning and direction of the work of a specified unit; uses specialized techniques, develops and applies complex, nonstandardized virologic analyses, requiring initiative and independent judgment; develops quality assurance procedures; performs functions typical of a reference laboratory such as: technical consultation from the State Reference Laboratory to local public health and clinical laboratorians, directors, physicians, and officials of other State, local, and private agencies; plans and conducts evaluations of performance of local public health and clinical virology laboratory work; trains postdoctoral microbiologists, pathologists, and related medical personnel in standardized and specialized microbiological methods and interpretation of test results; assists in preparing data for publication; and does other related work.

Positions may exist with the Department Public Health in the following Counties: Alameda, Contra Costa and Sacramento.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMITTANCE TO THE EXAMINATION: It is your responsibility to make sure you meet the education and/or experience requirements stated on this announcement on the date you submit your application. Your signature on your application indicates that you have read, understood, and possess the basic qualifications required.

NOTE: Applications must include "to" and "from" dates (month/day/year), time base, job titles and/or civil service class title(s), and range (if applicable) for all work experience. College course information must include title, number of semester or quarter units, name of institution, completion dates, and degree. Applications received without this information will be rejected. Applicants must submit a copy of official transcripts along with the application when using education to meet the entrance requirements for this examination.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Qualifying experience may be combined on a proportionate basis if the following requirements include more than one pattern and are distinguished as Either I, or II, or III, etc.

Possession of a valid Public Health Microbiologist's certificate issued by the California State Department of Health Services (California Department of Public Health). (Applicants who do not possess the required certificate but who are eligible for the examination for certification will be admitted to the examination, but they must secure the certificate before they will be considered eligible for appointment.)

AND Either I

Two years of experience performing duties of a Public Health Microbiologist I, Range B, including at least one year of experience in virology, in the State Department of Health Services (California Department of Public Health).

Or II

Three years of experience performing a wide variety of microbiologic (i.e., Bacteriology, Virology, Mycology, Parasitology, or Immunology) analyses in a public health or comparable laboratory, including at least one year performing virologic analysis. [A Master's Degree or higher degree in Medical Microbiology or Public Health with emphasis in virology or allied disciplines (e.g., microbiology, epidemiology, administration, biostatistics) may be substituted for one year of experience.]

SPECIAL PERSONAL CHARACTERISTICS: Color vision adequate to successfully perform the job.

GENERAL QUALIFICATIONS: In addition to the scope defined on this announcement, candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, ability to work cooperatively with others, and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required.

EXAMINATION INFORMATION: This examination utilizes an evaluation of education and experience (E&E) weighted 100%, and is based solely upon information provided with the application. Information provided with the application will be assessed compared to a standard developed in relation to the elements of the job and linked to the knowledge and abilities required on the job.

Special care should be taken to submitting a complete description of your education and experience relevant to the typical tasks, scope, and minimum qualifications stated on this announcement. Supplemental information will be accepted but competitors should read the announcement carefully to determine what kind of information will be useful to those individuals completing the evaluation.

The California Department of Public Health reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service law and rules and all competitors will be notified.

SCOPE: Rankings will be determined based on the depth and breadth of professional education and experience beyond what is minimally required. Emphasis will be placed on measuring:

Knowledge of:

1. Bacteriological, virological, mycological, parasitological, serological and other microbiological principles, techniques, equipment, and terminology used in the laboratory for the detection and identification of disease agents.
2. Quality control procedures applicable to general field of microbiology.
3. Bacteriological principles, techniques, and terminology used in immunology and in the examination of food and water.
4. The common causes of disease and methods of transmission and control of communicable diseases.
5. Laboratory scientific resource materials.
6. Laboratory equipment and its care.
7. Principles and methods of scientific research and relevant scientific theories, and new, innovative test methodologies.
8. Specific virologic techniques.

Ability to:

1. Perform microbiological laboratory tests.
2. Do varied and difficult laboratory work.
3. Provide technical guidance to assistants.
4. Keep records and make reports.
5. Analyze situations accurately and take effective action.
6. Work cooperatively and effectively with others in a laboratory setting.
7. Observe proper safety precautions and procedures.
8. Perform specialized virologic analyses.
9. Plan and review work of others.
10. Do technical research and method development work.
11. Act as a consultant.
12. Interpret the laws and regulations pertaining to medical laboratories.
13. Establish and maintain cooperative relations with those contacted in the course of the work.

ELIGIBLE LIST INFORMATION: Names of successful competitors are merged into a departmental open list established for use by the Department of Public Health in order of final scores regardless of testing date. Eligibility expires 18 months after it is established unless the needs of the service and conditions of the list warrant a change in this period. All candidates meeting the minimum qualifications will be placed on the eligible list.

NOTE: Transfer of list eligibility is not permitted from a list established by an E&E examination to a list established by any other type of examination.

Eligible Lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multi-departmental promotional, 4) service-wide promotional, 5) departmental open, and 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first.

VETERANS' PREFERENCE: Will be awarded in this examination, pursuant to Government Code Section 18973.1, effective January 1, 2014, as follows: 1) Any veteran, widow or widower of a veteran, or spouse of a 100 percent disabled veteran, who achieves a passing score in an entrance examination, shall be ranked in the top rank of the resulting eligibility list. Any veteran who has been dishonorably discharged or released is not eligible for veterans' preference; 2) An entrance examination is defined, under the law, as any open competitive examination; 3) Veterans' Preference is not granted once a person achieves permanent civil service status.

HOW TO APPLY FOR VETERANS' PREFERENCE: The California Department of Human Resources (CalHR) has information on how to apply for Veterans' Preference on their website at www.jobs.ca.gov and on the Application for Veterans' Preference form (CalHR 1093). Additional information is also available at the Department of Veterans Affairs website at www.cdva.ca.gov.
