RESOURCES FOR OPIOID PRESCRIBERS

CLINICIAN TOOLS

CDC Clinical Tools (Opioid Prescribing Guidelines Mobile App, Checklist, Nonopioid Treatments, Assessing Benefits and Harm, Calculating Dosage, and more!)

CDC Tapering Pocket Guide

Clinician Consultation Center (Clinician-to-clinician Telephone Consultation Services for Providers) or by phone: (855) 300-3595 from 7am to 3pm PST on weekdays. Affiliated with UCSF

SAMHSA – FREE MAT Treatment of Opioids Use Disorder Pocket Guide

SAMHSA – Opioid Overdose Toolkit (Information for Prescribers, Essential Steps for First Responders, Recovering from Opioid Overdose)

California Society of Addiction Medicine (CSAM) Resources for Primary Care Physicians (Screening and Brief Intervention, Screening Tools, Naloxone Resources, and more)

MEDICATION-ASSISTED TREATMENT RESOURCES

American Society of Addiction Medicine (ASAM)

California Health Care Foundation (CHCF) Opioid Safety (Safer Prescribing, MAT, Availability of naloxone)

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) MAT Certification and Training Programs

SAMHSA – Apply for OTP Certification

SAMHSA – Training Materials and Resources (Buprenorphine Training for Physicians, Opioid Prescribing Courses for Physicians, Webinar, Workshops, and Summits, Publications and Research)

The American Osteopathic Academy of Addiction Medicine (AOAAM) Clinician Tools (Buprenorphine information for patients and families, sample intake questionnaire, consent for release, sample treatment agreements, Clinical opiate withdrawal scale and more)

UC Davis Health – Project ECHO (Extension for Community Health Care Outcomes) Aims to develop the capacity of primary care clinicians to safely and effectively manage chronic pain within their communities. A multidisciplinary team of specialists support participating primary care clinicians through weekly peer-to-peer video conferences.

Created February 2017A by the CDPH Prescription Drug Overdose Prevention (PDOP) Initiative