

Is it an outbreak or not?

An illustration featuring two characters. On the left, a Black woman with her hair in a bun wears a headset and a blue polo shirt with a 'California Department of Public Health' logo. On the right, a woman with long brown hair is shown from the chest up, holding a black smartphone to her ear. The background is a simple, textured wall.

A COVID-19 outbreak at work is when 3 or more people in a work area get COVID-19 in a 14-day period.

Outbreaks must be reported by your employer to the local health department.
