CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION CREDIT INFORMATION:

HOAC is accredited by the Institute for Medical Quality/California Medical Association (IMQ/CMA) to provide CME for physicians. HOAC takes responsibility for the content, quality, and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

HOAC designates this educational activity for a maximum of 10.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits(s)™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. This credit may also be applied to the CMA Certification in Continuing Medical Education. Non-physicians who participate in this session will receive a Certificate of Attendance. This program is designed to benefit health officers, deputy health officers, public health physicians, and all other professionals interested in improving the practice of public health at the local level.

CONFERENCE CME OBJECTIVES:

After attending this conference, participants will be able to:

- Implement local public health strategies to prevent homelessness and improve the health of those experiencing housing insecurities
- Establish and lead multidisciplinary partnerships to address various social determinants of health and their impacts on homeless populations
- Effectively communicate with key stakeholders about the relationship between health, poverty, and housing, as well as the public health risks of homelessness
