CONTINUING MEDICAL EDUCATION CREDIT

INFORMATION: HOAC is accredited by the Institute for Medical Quality/California Medical Association (IMQ/CMA) to provide CME for physicians. HOAC takes responsibility for the content, quality, and scientific integrity of this CME activity.

HOAC designates this educational activity for a maximum of 10.75 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits(s)™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity. This credit may also be applied to the CMA Certification in Continuing Medical Education. Non-physicians who participate in this session will receive a Certificate of Attendance. This program is designed to benefit health officers, deputy health officers, public health physicians, and all other professionals interested in improving the practice of public health at the local level.

CONFERENCE CME OBJECTIVES:

After attending this conference, participants will be able to:

- Strategize to prevent trauma and toxic stress
- Apply methods to measure the impacts of ACEs on community health
- Partner in public health and across sectors to foster resilient communities and reduce the effects of ACEs

REGISTRATION/CHARGES:

You may register separately for each day of the conference: the CCLHO Business Meeting on Wednesday, the Continuing Medical Education Program, "The Road to Resilience: A Public Health Approach to ACEs" on Thursday and Friday, or you may register for the full conference at a discounted rate. Breakfast on each day, lunches for Wednesday and Thursday and the Wednesday evening reception are included in the full registration fee. Continuing Medical Education Credits for physicians and other professions are separate. Please see below for applicable charges. Please return the completed registration form with your check payable to "CCLHO" by Wednesday, April 25, 2018 in order to avoid paying a late fee of $20. Please note all guests must pay registration fees. This meeting is a legal charge to the local health jurisdiction. There is no state reimbursement for travel.
