VENDOR ALERT 2015-01

TO: ALL WIC VENDORS
SUBJECT: NOTICE OF THE END OF THE VENDOR MORATORIUM

Purpose The California Special Supplemental Nutrition Program for Women, Infants and Children (WIC) is announcing the end of the federal moratorium on new vendor authorizations effective February 1, 2015.

Background In April 2012, the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) imposed a vendor moratorium, limiting California WIC's ability to authorize new vendor store locations. In June 2014, California WIC received approval from the USDA to begin to lift the moratorium in phases.

Phase 1 was implemented on June 1, 2014, allowing the California WIC to accept new applications from vendors adding additional store locations to an existing WIC contract.

Phase 2 was implemented on September 15, 2014, allowing California WIC to accept new applications from vendors without a current WIC contract that meet the Full-Line Grocery Store Criteria as defined in WIC Regulatory Bulletin (W.B.R.) Section 50200.

Eligibility The moratorium on accepting new vendor applications is lifted effective February 1, 2015, allowing California WIC to accept applications from all store types. Only stores meeting the vendor authorization criteria will be processed for authorization.

The vendor authorization criteria, regulations Sections 70000 through 71900 may be reviewed at the following link:
