II. Statement inclusion

A. The standard nondiscrimination statement must be included on any printed WIC Program materials used for certification and eligibility, program outreach, referrals, program promotion and participant rights intended for public information, public education, or public distribution.

1. Examples include applications, publications, informational materials, posters, outreach materials, handouts, referral materials, videos, leaflets, brochures, and flyers.

2. Where space restraints make it infeasible to include the standard long statement, the short version may be used to satisfy the nondiscrimination statement requirement.

A. The nondiscrimination statement does not have to be read in its entirety for radio and television public service announcements (PSA) because PSAs are generally short in duration. Instead, the short version is sufficient.

III. Statement exclusion

A. The nondiscrimination statement is not required on items such as cups, baby bibs, buttons, tote bags, magnets, nutrition education and breastfeeding.
promotion material, other incentive items, pens that identify the State WIC Program.

B. Nutrition education and breastfeeding promotion and support materials that strictly provide a nutrition message and simply carry the WIC logo with no other mention of the WIC Program are not required to display the nondiscrimination statement.

IV. Public Service Announcement, Paid Television or Radio Advertising

A. A public service announcement (PSA) is a non-commercial advertisement typically on television or radio and broadcast for the common good at no charge. Paid television and radio advertisements require a fee for broadcasting.

B. As WIC PSAs are generally short in duration the entire standard non-discrimination statement does not have to be read in its entirety. Instead, the shorter statement, “WIC is an equal opportunity provider” is sufficient to meet the federal nondiscrimination requirement.

C. The California Department of Public Health’s (CDPH) Office of Public Affairs requires that all PSAs, paid television and radio advertising, outdoor print ads, videos/websites and collateral materials that are produced and/or paid for with CDPH funds must also include the following statement(s):

1. Public Service Announcements – Television and radio:
   a. “Brought to you by the California Department of Public Health.”
   b. “Brought to you by the State of California.” (For campaigns that include funds from another state agency)
