PURPOSE:
To provide and ensure smooth, seamless, and continued participation of certified participants through the entirety of their certification period when they move from one service delivery area to another.

POLICY:
I. Local agency (LA) staff must accept valid Verification of Certification (VOC) documents from out-of-state WIC LAs and the WIC Overseas Program.
   A. Participants who present a valid VOC card or document must receive program services, regardless of whether the participant meets California's eligibility criteria. Participants transferring must provide proof of identity, California residency, and be categorically eligible.
   B. A VOC document is deemed valid if it contains, at a minimum, the participant’s name, date of certification, and the expiration date of the current certification period.
   C. LA staff may contact the sending agency for missing or incomplete information. State and territory contact information can be found on the USDA website.
   D. Participants must not be penalized, nor services delayed due to an incomplete VOC document.
II. LA staff, when aware of participant’s plan to transfer, must provide VOC documentation to California WIC participants transferring to an out-of-state WIC LA or the WIC Overseas Program.
III. LA staff must not require participants to sign a consent form to share VOC information with other states or LAs.
IV. Migrant farmworkers with expired VOC documents, may still be eligible for WIC benefits if the income was assessed within the last 12 months. Income eligibility must only be determined once every 12 months for migrant farmworker families.

PROCEDURE(S):
I. Accepting a Transferring Participant
   A. Transferring into California from out of State
      1. If a participant is unable to provide proof of identity and current residency when presenting VOC documentation, the LA staff must have the participant sign the CDPH 4130 California WIC Self Declaration Statement.
a. Clearly inform the participant to bring the necessary documents needed within 30 days and the consequences of not providing the documents. Complete and have the family representative sign the Self Declaration Statement in WIC WISE.

2. Offer a voter registration form.

3. Participant must read and sign the Know Your Rights and Responsibilities in WIC WISE. Refer to WPPM 260-40.

4. Participants must surrender any unused food instruments (FIs) and Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) cards.
   a. LA staff must destroy unused FIs and EBT cards, if available.
   b. LA staff must issue the maximum monthly allowance for that month.
   c. LA staff must explain any differences in the authorized supplemental foods. Provide WIC orientation information or class as necessary.

5. LA staff must place a transferring participant at the top of any waiting list and certify the participant as soon as possible if the LA is at maximum caseload.

6. LA staff must use risk code 502 “Transfer of Certification” if a nutritional risk is not documented on the VOC document or not in use by the originating state.

B. In State transfer

1. The transfer of participants within California is completed in WIC WISE. LA staff must:
   a. Update current address and contact information.
   b. Offer a new voter registration form, if there is an address change.

2. During Statewide Rollout
   a. WIC MIS to WIC WISE and WIC WISE to WIC MIS refer to the instructions in the CDPH/WIC job aid.

II. Transferring a Participant

A. Out of State Transfer

1. When a participant is planning to relocate outside of California during a certification period LA staff must:
   a. Void future month’s benefits if already assigned.
   b. Issue food benefits if appropriate.
   c. Print and sign the VOC. Issue the signed VOC to the participant.
d. Offer the name, address, and telephone number of the state WIC program serving the area of their new residence. A list of State WIC Programs is located in the National Directory of WIC Agencies found on the USDA website.

e. Provide information to an out-of-state WIC agency or to the participant to complete the transfer, when necessary.

2. WIC Overseas Program
   a. The LA must issue a VOC document from WIC WISE to a participant/family representative who is a member of the Armed Forces, a civilian employee of a military department, or a Department of Defense contractor and their family members who indicate the intent to relocate overseas during a certification period.
   b. The LA must provide the participant with the name, address, and telephone number of the WIC Overseas Program serving the area of the participant’s new residence. The locations of the WIC Overseas Program can be found on the TRICARE website.

B. Transfers within California
   1. Issue food benefits, if appropriate.
   2. Provide contact information for the LA in the area, with the CDPH/WIC phone number or website.
   3. LA staff do not need to issue a VOC.

III. Sending VOC Documents
   A. LA staff or CDPH/WIC must provide a VOC document or relevant information to participants who have already moved out-of-state or overseas or to the participant’s new LA upon receipt of a verbal or written request.
      1. Staff must attempt to confirm the identity of the individual if the request to send a VOC is received. If the request is coming from the family representative, verify the first and last name, date of birth, and zip code on file.
      2. No consent form or written release by the participant is necessary to send a VOC.

IV. Records Retention
   A. Incoming VOC documents from other states may contain specific participant eligibility information that is not in WIC WISE. LA staff must:
      1. Scan the out of state VOC documents in WIC WISE. WIC WISE will retain the scanned copy.
2. Shred the VOC documents if the participant does not transfer before the VOC expires.

AUTHORITY:
7 CFR §246.7(k)

CROSS REFERENCES:
WPPM 110-20 Maintenance of Specific Program Records
WPPM 260-40 WIC Participants Rights and Responsibilities