

Nominate your Immunization Champion for the Childhood Immunization Champion Award! The CDC Childhood Immunization Champion Award is an annual award that recognizes individuals who make a significant contribution toward improving public health through their work in childhood immunization.

Last year, Kendra Mitchell of the Shingletown medical Center was the award recipient from California. If you know someone who should be recognized for their stellar work in childhood immunizations in California, consider nominating that person!

The deadline to submit your nomination packet to the California Department of Public Health is Friday February 8, 2019. Please email your nomination packet to Betty.Tran@cdph.ca.gov. For more details, including information on who is eligible, the nomination and selection process, etc. visit the CDC's Immunization Champions page.

The award winners will be announced in conjunction with National Infant Immunization Week, April 27-May 4, 2019.