

Public Health Week is April 7-13!

Climate Change:

California's Health in The Balance

The California Department of Public Health invites you to celebrate National Public Health Week at our kickoff event

Monday, April 7, 2008

State Capitol — North Steps

11:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

Speakers, Music, Booths, Goodies
Presentation begins at 12 noon

Take the Walk and Make the Connection!

- Learn what you can do to protect yourself, your state, and your planet.
- See exhibits, get materials, hear speakers, and reduce your carbon footprint.

"If you want to learn the connection between climate change and public health, and what California is doing to prepare for climate change, come to our Public Health Week kick off event. This is the event for anyone who wants to be part of the solution."

—Dr. Mark Horton, Director, California Department of Public Health
