Court Order Delayed Certificate of Marriage

If a marriage was never registered, or there is no record of the marriage on file, what can I do?

- A Court Order Delayed Certificate of Marriage is a way to register a California marriage when the marriage was not previously registered, or a certified copy is not obtainable.
 - Any beneficially interested person can petition the Superior Court to judicially establish the fact of marriage.
 - This must be done in the Superior Court in either the county of residence of the person whose marriage is being established (does not have to be in California), or in the California county where the marriage was alleged to have occurred.

How do I petition the court?

- We suggest you contact a family law attorney for legal advice in this matter. Our staff cannot provide legal advice, nor do we have information about the legal process.
 - There are also books available at bookstores or public libraries to help you with the court process.
 - You can access the following website for additional information about the court process and to get the court forms you will need, including versions that you can fill out on your computer: www.courts.ca.gov. The court will require you to fill out, sign, and file Judicial Council forms MC-362 and MC-362A with the court, and provide the court with an order ready for the judge's signature. You can also get the forms from the court where you will file the completed forms.

After I get the court order, what do I submit to register the marriage?

- At the time of the court hearing, you must present the court with a completed Order Establishing Fact of Marriage/Court Order Delayed Certificate of Marriage (VS 122) form, along with any documents you have that support the date and place of the marriage. The VS 122 must be an original form. Photocopies are not acceptable. Please see page 3 for information on obtaining an original form.
- Once the court establishes the fact of marriage, mail the following items to our office using the address on the front of this pamphlet:
 - Certified copy of the Order Establishing Fact of Marriage (top of VS 122 form)
 - Completed Court Order Delayed Certificate of Marriage (bottom of VS 122 form)
 - $23 fee

After I get the court order, what do I submit to register the marriage?

See next section for explanation of “certified” copy.

We do not return the court order after the marriage certificate is prepared.

If any of these items are not included, your request will be returned to you for correction.

What is a “certified” copy of the court order?

1. A “certified” copy of the court order must be a copy of the order that was originally prepared by the court. It cannot be an original printout.

If the court gives you an original printout, please ask them to make a photocopy.

2. The photocopy that the court gives you must have:

- An original court seal.
- A signature (or signature stamp) of the judge.
- A signature (or signature stamp) of the court clerk.

IMPORTANT:

✓ The “certified” copy must have an original court seal and a signature (or signature stamp) of the court clerk. It is the original seal and court clerk signature (certification) that make this a “certified” copy.

✓ Do not send us a copy where the court seal has been photocopied. The court seal must be an original seal.

✓ The court seal and a certified stamp with the date and a signature must appear on the actual certified copy of the Order Establishing the Fact of Marriage (either front or back) – and not on the Court Order Delayed Certificate of Marriage form or a blank sheet of paper.

✓ The “FILED / ENDORSED” stamp in the top right corner of the court order is not the court clerk’s certification.

✓ You should keep a photocopy of the court order for your own file.

What is the fee for a court order delayed registration?

- $23 – which includes one Certified Copy of the marriage certificate.
- Additional copies are $15 each.
- Fees should be paid by check or money order payable to CDPH Vital Records. International money orders for out-of-country requests should be payable in U.S. dollars.

Where can I get the VS 122 form?

The application must be an original form (our office uses a special bond paper). Photocopies are not acceptable. One application form is included if you receive this pamphlet by mail. If you need additional copies of the VS 122 form, or are accessing this pamphlet on our website:

- Order forms electronically at:
<https://apps.cdph.ca.gov/AutoForm2/default.aspx?af=1184>.
Because of the volume of phone calls we receive, the Internet is usually a faster process for our customers than calling our Customer Service Unit.
- Call our Customer Service Unit at (916) 445-2684.
- You can also get the form from the County Recorder in any California county.

How do I complete the VS 122 form?

A sample of what a completed form should look like is attached.

The VS 122 is a two-part perforated form.

- The top part is the court order that will be signed by the judge.
- The bottom part becomes the official marriage certificate that will be filed in our office (State Registrar) and provided to the County Recorder's Office in the county where the marriage occurred.

PART ONE (Top Portion) – Order Establishing Fact of Marriage

- Complete all items except the judge's signature and the line at the bottom that states "Done in court on this _____ day of _____ A.D., 20____."
- Your reason for having to file the marriage by court order must be included on the Order (middle of the form, on the line that begins "in that"). If the reason is not included, you will have to return to court, have the Order amended, and provide us with a certified copy of the amended Order.

Before you leave the courthouse, make sure:

- There is a case number on the Order.
- The Order has been certified. (See previous section for explanation of "certified" copy.)

We do not return the court order after the marriage certificate is prepared.

How do I complete the VS 122 form?

PART TWO (Bottom Portion) – Court Order Delayed Certificate of Marriage

- Do not write on the “State File Number” line (directly below perforation) or on the bottom part of the form marked “State Registrar Use Only.”
 - Complete items 1A through 30 only.

What makes a VS 122 form “acceptable?”

Important Information

Marriage certificates are legal documents that must be able to hold up in any court, unchallenged as to their accuracy and reliability.

Because the bottom part of the VS 122 form becomes the actual marriage certificate, it must adhere to strict guidelines:

- Items 1A through 30 must be completed.
 - The form must be an original, not a photocopy.
 - Because the form becomes the official record, every word and letter must be extremely clear and legible. Using a typewriter to complete the form ensures that the information is interpreted clearly.
 - If you are not able to type the form, it is extremely important that you take the extra time to print very clearly and legibly. Documents that are not legible will be returned to you to complete again.
 - Only black ink is acceptable.
 - There cannot be any erasures, whiteout, or alterations.

How long will it take to get the marriage certificate?

The processing time for court order delayed marriage certificates can be located on our website at:

<http://www.cdph.ca.gov/certlic/birthdeathmar/Pages/ProcessingTimes.aspx>

What if I still have questions?

If you have read this pamphlet thoroughly and still have questions that were not answered, please call our Customer Service Unit at (916) 445-2684. If you are checking the status of your request, please wait until after the processing time has passed before contacting us.

INFORMATION:

Public marriage records have been maintained in the California Department of Public Health Vital Records (CDPH-VR) since July 1, 1905.

- 1905 through 1948, 1987 through 1997, and 2000 to 2010: We are not able to provide certified copies of certificates for these years. You will need to contact the County Recorder in the county where the license was issued. Our staff is continually indexing older marriage records and will post updates on our website as more years become available for request.
- 1949 through 1986: Due to the increased and urgent need for certified copies of birth certificates as proof of identity, CDPH-VR is experiencing lengthy delays in the processing time for marriage records. Since this processing time can easily exceed six months, you should submit your request for a marriage record to the County Recorder's Office in the county where the marriage license was issued.
- 1998 through 1999 and 2011 to Present: If you require a copy within the first six months after the date of event, we recommend that you send your request to the County Recorder's Office where the marriage license was issued, as our office may not have the record available yet. If you choose to send your request to our office within the first six months after the date of event, and we do not have the record available yet, we will issue you a Certificate of No Public Record (CNPR). Our office will retain the fee for the search, per California law.
- Confidential Marriage Records: We do not maintain confidential marriage records. Contact the County Clerk's Office in the county where the marriage license was issued.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. ONLY individuals who are authorized by Health and Safety Code Section 103526 can obtain a Certified Copy of a Marriage Record. (Page 1 identifies the individuals who are authorized to make the request.) All others may receive a Certified Informational Copy which will be marked, "Informational, Not a Valid Document to Establish Identity."
2. Complete a separate application for each marriage record requested.
3. Provide as much information as possible to help us locate the specific record you are requesting. Complete First Person and Second Person Information for marriage requests. If the information you provide is incomplete or inaccurate, we may not be able to locate the record.
4. SWORN STATEMENT:
 - The authorized individual requesting the certified copy must sign the attached Sworn Statement, declaring under penalty of perjury that they are eligible to receive the certified copy of the marriage record, and identify their relationship to the registrant (person listed on the certificate) – the relationship must be one of those identified on Page 1.
 - If the application is being submitted by mail, the Sworn Statement must be notarized by a Notary Public. (To find a Notary Public, see your local yellow pages or call your banking institution.) Law enforcement and local and state governmental agencies are exempt from the notary requirement.
 - You do not have to provide a Sworn Statement if you are requesting a certified informational copy of the marriage record.
5. Submit $15 for each copy requested. If no marriage record is found, the fee will be retained for searching for the record (as required by law) and a "Certificate of No Public Record" will be issued to the applicant. Indicate the number of copies you want and include the correct fee(s) in the form of a personal check or postal or bank money order (International Money Order for out-of-country requests) made payable to CDPH Vital Records. PLEASE SUBMIT CHECK OR MONEY ORDER – DO NOT SEND CASH (CDPH cannot be held responsible for fees paid in cash that are lost, misdirected, or undelivered).
6. Mail completed applications with the fee(s) to:
