

Ending Violence Against Women: A Forum for Primary Prevention Advocates June 18 – 19, 2007

Purpose:

The purpose of this meeting is to strengthen capacity and collaboration among VAW prevention advocates for program and policy development.

Who should Attend

This Forum is for those who are currently implementing local or statewide violence against women primary prevention programs.

Meeting Goals:

- Highlight lessons learned from VAW prevention efforts to date.
- Provide examples of emerging and promising practices
- Broaden our approaches to engage new partners in the work, including youth and men.
- Articulate the challenges and opportunities in advancing and broadening the prevention agenda.
