Date/Time: December 2, 2015
9:00am – 4:00pm

Location: The Sierra Health Foundation
1321 Garden Highway
Sacramento, California 95833

Overview

This session is designed to improve competence, confidence, and effectiveness of staff who lead SNAP-Ed related classes, with particular focus on using a learner-centered approach.

Who should attend?

It is designed for staff who lead SNAP-Ed classes, or staff who help support these educators (such as supervisors or trainers).

Agenda

The session will go over:

- Understanding how adults learn
- Presenting with pizzazz
- Encouraging interactions through affirmation, silence and pair-share
- Dealing with difficult situations:
 - misinformation
 - negativity
 - going off track, and
 - the dominator
- Spicing up SNAP-Ed classes with your own personality – when and how to do it
