*There are two member types:

- (1) An active member is the eligible voting representative for the local health jurisdiction on all issues and for election of officers. Each local health jurisdiction in California may have one active (voting) member who is the Communicable Disease Controller of that jurisdiction, the Health Officer or a person appointed by the Health Officer to conduct and/ or represent CD control in that jurisdiction (a signature from the Health Officer or CD Controller is required if the active member is a proxy).

Health Officer/CD Controller Name

Health Officer/CD Controller Signature

- (2) An associate member is a non-voting member from the local health jurisdiction who is active in communicable disease control efforts, including representatives from other CCLHO affiliates (e.g., laboratory, environmental health).

There is an annual membership fee of $50.00 per jurisdiction (regardless of how many Associate Members join), which must be submitted with the completed membership form if not already submitted by your jurisdiction for this year. Please make check payable to CACDC and send completed membership form and fee to the CACDC Treasurer:
