

"Young people should be at the forefront of global change and innovation. Empowered, they can be key agents for development and peace. If, however, they are left on society's margins, all of us will be impoverished. Let us ensure that all young people have every opportunity to participate fully in the lives of their societies."

— Kofi Annan

We welcome those working with Youth (ages 12-18) to join us for an interactive day of training.

The Network for a Healthy California (Network) Children and Youth Team is convening a series of trainings for Local Health Department grantees and their subcontractors who will be coordinating Network Youth Engagement Initiative Projects throughout the state.

Attendees will:

- Receive an introduction to Youth-Led Participatory Action Research (YPAR)
- Engage with tools and activities that support authentic youth engagement
- Initiate the process of creating a plan for youth engagement in your communities
- Learn skills in a train-the-trainer approach that can inspire youth leadership

Register today for the session near you!

Please contact Metria Munyan at 916-449-5410 or Metria.Munyan@cdph.ca.gov with any questions.
