Conference Objectives:

At the end of the conference, the participant will be able to:

- Participants will be able to state three perinatal public policy initiatives for 2015
- Know when and how to make a mandated report of child maltreatment and/or family violence thereby keeping children and families safe, healthy, and strong
- Increase one's knowledge level of facilitating a Centering out-patient pregnancy group
- Illustrate methods to implement EBP at the bedside
- Discuss ideas for sustainability of new projects
- Discuss initiating nitrous oxide as an option for labor analgesia in the hospital setting
- Understand how multidisciplinary in situ drills not only improve technical skills, but enhance non-technical skills, thus decreasing risk, improving safety and impacting patient outcomes
- Share enthusiasm for quality: Revitalize your team's commitment to professional excellence with a balance of expectations, accountability, and pride
- Describe how telemedicine can assist in the coordination and quality of perinatal care delivery
