

FOOD INDUSTRY TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Summer 2015

The Food and Drug Branch, Industry Education and Training Unit (FDB - IETU) is pleased to announce training events for the food industry. The workshops are FREE of charge to all food companies with a valid Processed Food Registration issued by the Branch. Advance registration is required. Course descriptions are summarized below.

1) Food Labeling Principles (New for 2015!)

This is an introductory course on the principles of proper food labeling in accordance with federal and state laws, including those outlined in the California Health and Safety Code (Sherman Food Law) and Title 21, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 101 (Food Labeling).

Who Should Attend: Employees, managers, and owners who are responsible for developing, evaluating, and using food labels.

2) Current Good Manufacturing Practices (cGMP)

This class introduces the Good Manufacturing Practices for food outlined in Title 21, CFR, Part 110. Topics covered include personnel, facilities and grounds, equipment, process controls, and more.

Who Should Attend: Front-line food handlers, managers, supervisors and owners.

3) Food Recalls: Essentials for Action

This training will discuss the development and implementation of a recall plan and what food companies should do after a food recall event.

Who Should Attend: Employees, managers, and owners who are responsible for developing and implementing food recall plans.

Register Today – Seating is Limited!

Registration is first-come, first-served. Please complete the attached registration form at least one week prior to the date of training.
