

FOOD INDUSTRY TRAINING ANNOUNCEMENT

Spring 2016

The Food and Drug Branch, Industry Education and Training Unit (FDB - IETU) is pleased to announce training events for the food industry. The workshops are FREE of charge to all food companies with a valid Processed Food Registration issued by the Branch. Advance registration is required. Course descriptions are summarized below.

1) Food Labeling Principles

This is an introductory course on the principles of proper food labeling in accordance with federal and state laws, including those outlined in the California Health and Safety Code (Sherman Food Law) and Title 21, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 101 (Food Labeling).

Who Should Attend: Employees, managers, and owners who are responsible for developing, evaluating, and using food labels.

2) Current Good Manufacturing Practices (cGMP)

This class introduces the Good Manufacturing Practices for food outlined in Title 21, CFR, Part 110. Topics covered include personnel, facilities and grounds, equipment, process controls, and more.

Who Should Attend: Front-line food handlers, managers, supervisors and owners.

3) Food Recalls: Essentials for Action

This training will discuss the development and implementation of a recall plan and what food companies should do after a food recall event.

Who Should Attend: Employees, managers, and owners who are responsible for developing and implementing food recall plans.

4) Allergen Control for Food Processors

This training covers key elements for controlling food allergens in food facilities, compliance with federal and state laws, including the Food Allergen Labeling and Consumer Protection Act, how to develop an allergen control plan, and much more.

Who Should Attend: Front-line food handlers, managers, supervisors and owners.
