

RON CHAPMAN, MD, MPH
Director & State Health Officer

State of California—Health and Human Services Agency
California Department of Public Health

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor

February 11, 2014

Paul Kimsey, PhD
State Public Health Laboratory Director
California Department of Public Health
850 Marina Bay Parkway
Richmond, CA 94804-6403

Dear Dr. Kimsey,

This is to provide you with a status update to the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations. After the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee's (FARC) proposed revisions were incorporated, the revised regulations were submitted to the California Health and Human Services Agency. The California Department of Public Health will be adopting regulations that incorporate FARC's revisions, per Health and Safety Code 100702(f).

As such, I have directed the CDPH Office of Regulations to proceed with the rulemaking process to adopt regulations incorporating all the revisions proposed by the FARC.

I wish to thank the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee for their commitment and dedication to this process. It is impressive to know that fifteen formal working meetings were held since founding legislation was passed in the fall of 2004. This process has been a monumental undertaking and I congratulate the Committee members for their fine work and on their improvement of the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Billingsley, RN
Chief Deputy Director of Policy and Programs

RON CHAPMAN, MD, MPH
Director & State Health Officer

State of California—Health and Human Services Agency
California Department of Public Health

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor

February 11, 2014

Mr. Dan F. Jeffries
Assistant Supervising Attorney
City of Los Angeles
City Attorney's Office
1945 South Hill Street, Room 501
Los Angeles, CA 90007

Dear Mr. Jeffries,

This is to provide you with a status update to the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations. After the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee's (FARC) proposed revisions were incorporated, the revised regulations were submitted to the California Health and Human Services Agency. The California Department of Public Health will be adopting regulations that incorporate FARC's revisions, per Health and Safety Code 100702(f).

As such, I have directed the CDPH Office of Regulations to proceed with the rulemaking process to adopt regulations incorporating all the revisions proposed by the FARC.

I wish to thank the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee for their commitment and dedication to this process. It is impressive to know that fifteen formal working meetings were held since founding legislation was passed in the fall of 2004. This process has been a monumental undertaking and I congratulate the Committee members for their fine work and on their improvement of the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Billingsley, RN
Chief Deputy Director of Policy and Programs

RON CHAPMAN, MD, MPH
Director & State Health Officer

State of California—Health and Human Services Agency
California Department of Public Health

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor

February 11, 2014

Sergeant Christine Jacobs
California Highway Patrol
Research and Planning Section
601 North 7th Street
Sacramento, CA 95811

Dear Sergeant Jacobs,

This is to provide you with a status update to the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations. After the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee's (FARC) proposed revisions were incorporated, the revised regulations were submitted to the California Health and Human Services Agency. The California Department of Public Health will be adopting regulations that incorporate FARC's revisions, per Health and Safety Code 100702(f).

As such, I have directed the CDPH Office of Regulations to proceed with the rulemaking process to adopt regulations incorporating all the revisions proposed by the FARC.

I wish to thank the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee for their commitment and dedication to this process. It is impressive to know that fifteen formal working meetings were held since founding legislation was passed in the fall of 2004. This process has been a monumental undertaking and I congratulate the Committee members for their fine work and on their improvement of the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Billingsley, RN
Chief Deputy Director of Policy and Programs

RON CHAPMAN, MD, MPH
Director & State Health Officer

State of California—Health and Human Services Agency
California Department of Public Health

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor

February 11, 2014

Mr. Bruce Lyle
Assistant Chief Deputy Coroner
Orange County Sheriff - Coroner Dept.
1071 West Santa Ana Boulevard
Santa Ana, CA 92703-3927

Dear Mr. Lyle,

This is to provide you with a status update to the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations. After the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee's (FARC) proposed revisions were incorporated, the revised regulations were submitted to the California Health and Human Services Agency. The California Department of Public Health will be adopting regulations that incorporate FARC's revisions, per Health and Safety Code 100702(f).

As such, I have directed the CDPH Office of Regulations to proceed with the rulemaking process to adopt regulations incorporating all the revisions proposed by the FARC.

I wish to thank the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee for their commitment and dedication to this process. It is impressive to know that fifteen formal working meetings were held since founding legislation was passed in the fall of 2004. This process has been a monumental undertaking and I congratulate the Committee members for their fine work and on their improvement of the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Billingsley, RN
Chief Deputy Director of Policy and Programs

RON CHAPMAN, MD, MPH
Director & State Health Officer

State of California—Health and Human Services Agency
California Department of Public Health

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor

February 11, 2014

Ms. Jennifer A. Harmon
Assistant Director – Forensic Chemistry
Orange County Crime Laboratory
320 North Flower Street
Santa Ana, CA 92703

Dear Ms. Harmon,

This is to provide you with a status update to the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations. After the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee's (FARC) proposed revisions were incorporated, the revised regulations were submitted to the California Health and Human Services Agency. The California Department of Public Health will be adopting regulations that incorporate FARC's revisions, per Health and Safety Code 100702(f).

As such, I have directed the CDPH Office of Regulations to proceed with the rulemaking process to adopt regulations incorporating all the revisions proposed by the FARC.

I wish to thank the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee for their commitment and dedication to this process. It is impressive to know that fifteen formal working meetings were held since founding legislation was passed in the fall of 2004. This process has been a monumental undertaking and I congratulate the Committee members for their fine work and on their improvement of the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Billingsley, RN
Chief Deputy Director of Policy and Programs

RON CHAPMAN, MD, MPH
Director & State Health Officer

State of California—Health and Human Services Agency
California Department of Public Health

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor

February 11, 2014

Mr. Mark K. Slaughter
Assistant Public Defender
Sacramento County
700 H Street, Suite 0270
Sacramento, CA 95814-1289

Dear Mr. Slaughter,

This is to provide you with a status update to the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations. After the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee's (FARC) proposed revisions were incorporated, the revised regulations were submitted to the California Health and Human Services Agency. The California Department of Public Health will be adopting regulations that incorporate FARC's revisions, per Health and Safety Code 100702(f).

As such, I have directed the CDPH Office of Regulations to proceed with the rulemaking process to adopt regulations incorporating all the revisions proposed by the FARC.

I wish to thank the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee for their commitment and dedication to this process. It is impressive to know that fifteen formal working meetings were held since founding legislation was passed in the fall of 2004. This process has been a monumental undertaking and I congratulate the Committee members for their fine work and on their improvement of the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Billingsley, RN
Chief Deputy Director of Policy and Programs

RON CHAPMAN, MD, MPH
Director & State Health Officer

State of California—Health and Human Services Agency
California Department of Public Health

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor

February 11, 2014

Mr. Kenton S. Wong
Forensic Analytical Sciences, Inc.
3777 Depot Road, Suite 403
Hayward, CA 94545-2761

Dear Mr. Wong,

This is to provide you with a status update to the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations. After the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee's (FARC) proposed revisions were incorporated, the revised regulations were submitted to the California Health and Human Services Agency. The California Department of Public Health will be adopting regulations that incorporate FARC's revisions, per Health and Safety Code 100702(f).

As such, I have directed the CDPH Office of Regulations to proceed with the rulemaking process to adopt regulations incorporating all the revisions proposed by the FARC.

I wish to thank the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee for their commitment and dedication to this process. It is impressive to know that fifteen formal working meetings were held since founding legislation was passed in the fall of 2004. This process has been a monumental undertaking and I congratulate the Committee members for their fine work and on their improvement of the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Billingsley, RN
Chief Deputy Director of Policy and Programs

RON CHAPMAN, MD, MPH
Director & State Health Officer

State of California—Health and Human Services Agency
California Department of Public Health

EDMUND G. BROWN JR.
Governor

February 11, 2014

Ms. Jennifer Shen
San Diego Police Department
Forensic Science Section
1401 Broadway
San Diego, CA 92101-5729

Dear Ms. Shen,

This is to provide you with a status update to the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations. After the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee's (FARC) proposed revisions were incorporated, the revised regulations were submitted to the California Health and Human Services Agency. The California Department of Public Health will be adopting regulations that incorporate FARC's revisions, per Health and Safety Code 100702(f).

As such, I have directed the CDPH Office of Regulations to proceed with the rulemaking process to adopt regulations incorporating all the revisions proposed by the FARC.

I wish to thank the Forensic Alcohol Review Committee for their commitment and dedication to this process. It is impressive to know that fifteen formal working meetings were held since founding legislation was passed in the fall of 2004. This process has been a monumental undertaking and I congratulate the Committee members for their fine work and on their improvement of the Forensic Alcohol Analysis regulations.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Billingsley, RN
Chief Deputy Director of Policy and Programs